

Scavenger hunt for different coloured flowers.

On a walk around Chelsea Physic Garden we found these different coloured flowers in bloom.
How many coloured flowers can you find on your next walk? Cross them off as you find them.

A white flower

Often attractive to beetles, moths, butterflies and flies

A pink flower

Often attractive to butterflies and moths

A red flower

Often attractive to birds

An orange flower

Often attractive to birds and some butterflies

A yellow flower

Often attractive to bees, butterflies, hoverflies and wasps

A blue flower

Often attractive to bees

A purple flower

Often attractive to bees, wasps and butterflies

A green flower

Thought to be the first flower colour

A multicoloured flower