

Additional Information for Candidates for Chelsea Heritage Quarter Trustee/Chair role

Chelsea Heritage Quarter (CHQ) was launched in July 2024 to explore 350 years of British history through the rich history and heritage of three remarkable Chelsea institutions through a year-round programme of events, walking tours, installations and family activities. Our flagship event is the Chelsea History Festival which attracts over 10,000 people in September each year.

Our partners are: Chelsea Physic Garden, the National Army Museum, Royal Hospital Chelsea and Cadogan.

We have applied for Charitable Incorporated Organisation Status and are awaiting confirmation of this from the Charity Commission.

Trustees of Chelsea Heritage Quarter serve for 3 years and are currently:

Susan Medway

Justin Maciejewski

David Richmond

Kate Ainley-Marr

Danielle Sargent

Glyn Prysor

The Director of Chelsea Heritage Quarter is Gill Webber and she is supported by a Programme Co-ordinator. The CHQ Management team is drawn from senior staff from the partner institutions.
